JUDGMENT

Having heard learned counsel for parties, the petitioners virtually admit the statement of accounts furnished by respondents 1 and 2 showing that as on 31-7-2006, the amount due is Rs.92,500/-. Accordingly, this writ petition is disposed of directing that if the petitioner remits at the rate of Rs.20,000/- per month payable on or before the last working day of every month commencing from February, 2007 and thereby wipes of the said amount and all accruing incidentals thereon, further distress action will stand suspended. However, if there is any default in remitting the instalments as aforesaid, the benefit of this judgment shall stand recalled automatically and the revenue recovery authorities shall forthwith proceed with further action. At the request of the learned counsel for the petitioner, it is further directed that on payment of the first instalment, the petitioner will be entitled to point out to respondents 1 and 2 any clerical error in the calculation on the face of the statement furnished by them in Court.
